Manufacturing industry global transfer

According to data released by the Japan Center for Economic Research, the manufacturing output index of the five major Southeast Asian countries increased by 6.2% from the same period of the previous year from January to June 2018, approaching the slowing growth rate of China, which intensified the relocation of production from China to Southeast's "China +1" trend.

The gap between manufacturing production indices in Southeast Asia and China is narrowing

The growth rate of total social consumption has declined

Since 2018, the growth rate of total retail sales of social consumer goods has continued to fall. At the same time, high housing prices, high leverage of residents, stock market downturn, P2P and other Internet financial management plunged, which has reduced the willingness of residents to consume, which triggered the market to stagnate consumption upgrades and reduce consumption.

Growth rate of total retail sales of consumer goods: by type of consumption

Influences

Significant changes have taken place in the external environment. Whether it is Sino-US trade friction, domestic manufacturing industry transfer, or the decline in the growth rate of total retail sales of consumer goods, the direct impact of the decline is the decline in orders for carton companies, and the demand for the entire corrugated packaging industry is low.

Data resource: National Bureau of Statistics

Internal environment: paper price fluctuations, policy tightening, overcapacity

Raw material prices fluctuate sharply

DOUBT

Twenty years ago, the corrugated packaging industry was in the ascendant, and it was catching up with the fast track of the Chinese economy rapid development. The requirement of environmental protection was relatively loose. The import and export trade was once the leading carriage of the Chinese economy. At present, the corrugated packaging industry has reached the key transition stage of internal and external troubles, with trade friction and low-end manufacturing industry shift. The total growth rate of domestic social consumption has dropped from 20% to digits; raw material prices fluctuate frequently, and the supply terminal and consumer demand terminal are seriously unbalanced in this industry.

In this context, it is no exaggeration to call it the most severe moment. Where is the way out for the carton companies that want to survive in this industry reshuffle?

Here is the way

Intelligent management + efficient operations = connecting the future

► In the same period of the five exhibitions in 2019, the whole industry chain event, which integrates procurement, transformation and cross-border, cooperation, learning and taking orders, opens the road of breaking.
